UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA
UNITED STATES V. JAEMILLAH EAGANS, 2:18CR00246

SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WARRANT

November 18, 2022

On November 18, 2022, Eagans reported to the office as instructed after multiple attempts to contact her at her residence were unsuccessful. Eagans arrived with her eight (8) month old son. Eagans had red glassy eyes with pinpoint pupils when she arrived. Eagans submitted to a drug test which resulted in a presumptive positive for methamphetamine and opiates. Eagans admitted that she has been actively smoking methamphetamine for the past three (3) months. When confronted about the opiates, she was unable to provide an explanation.

Based upon Eagans having an infant with her while under the influence, the Probation Office requested permission to search her vehicle. Eagans consented to a search of her vehicle and provided the key and location of the vehicle. During search of Eagan's vehicle, officers observed a box of White Flyer clay shooting targets, commonly used in target shooting. Further search of the vehicle revealed a black plastic ammunition box on the floor-board below the infant's seat in the rear passenger area that contained 180 rounds of 7.62 mm ammunition, and 45 rounds of 9mm ammunition. Additionally, located in the rear hatch/trunk area a high-capacity magazine capable of carrying 39 rounds of 7.62mm ammunition. Lastly, located in the center console was a piece of burnt aluminum foil which Eagans previously told the undersigned would be found in her vehicle and was the method she was using to ingest methamphetamine.

Eagans also admitted that she routinely smokes/ingests methamphetamine in her vehicle prior to placing her infant and other small child in the same vehicle and driving. Also, during the office visit, Eagans admitted to the undersigned officer thashe has not been residing at her reported address, a violation of her release conditions.

Based upon her conduct and the risk to her infant and the public, the Probation Office respectfully requests that a warrant be issued and that Eagans be brought before the Court to show cause as to why her probation should not be revoked.

Respectfully submitted,
